💭 🙄 Monthly Message from our EQ President 🙄 💭

Brothers,

On Sunday, I shared a little about my recent trip and how certain places seemed to naturally draw my heart toward prayer and reflection. Standing in the stillness of the Salt Flats near the Great Salt Lake, along the Oregon coast, and among the towering redwoods of Northern California, I was reminded how important it is to intentionally create space in our lives to hear the Lord.

Life is busy and noisy. Spiritual growth rarely happens by accident. It comes when we deliberately step away from distraction and make dedicated, scheduled time for prayer, scripture study, reflection, and quiet listening.

In the most recent General Conference, Elder Ulisses Soares taught that remaining connected to Jesus Christ requires intentional daily choices amid the competing voices of the world. Those moments of quiet do not always need to happen in dramatic places. They can happen early in the morning, during a walk, in the temple, or in a quiet moment before the day begins.

The important thing is that we purposefully make room for the Savior.

I hope each of us can find dedicated time this week to step back from the noise and reconnect with the Lord.

Instructor: Cary Griffin

Talk: Prophets of God - Andrea Munoz Spannaus

“Parents, in this world where there are many voices and sometimes much darkness, God Himself has commanded us to raise our children in light and truth. He entrusted us with the responsibility to teach our children the saving truths of the gospel. If we fail to do so, the world will not do it.”

EQ Lesson 5/10 – Best Days and Worst Days

Instructor: Cary Griffin

Talk: Best Days and Worst Days – Emily Belle Freeman

“Jesus Christ brings joy. ... You might have a bad day, a bad week, or a bad year. [Just remember,] joy is not the absence of sorrow in your life; [it is] the presence of [Jesus] Christ in your life.”

We shared many best days and bad days in our discussion on this topic. The key for each of us is to recognize Jesus Christ’s influence
